Regulations for the Use of Hanover Conservation Land

In using the Conservation/Open Space parcels owned by the Town of Hanover, you are exercising a privilege that is afforded you as a result of the dedication and hard work of several Town Departments including, but not limited to, the Conservation Commission, the Open Space Committee and the Department of Public Works. It is our hope that you enjoy your visit to this very special place. To insure that others may enjoy the natural beauty and serenity of this land for years to come, please follow the rules below:

- No overnight camping or parking is allowed without permission from the Conservation Commission and notification to the Police Department.
- No open fires are permitted without Conservation Commission and Fire Department notification and permit.
- No motorized vehicles are allowed on any Conservation/Open Space parcel except in parking areas or as otherwise designated by the above Town Departments.
- No removal of any plant material without permission from the Conservation Commission.
- All debris must be removed from the site at the conclusion of the event.
- For the most current hunting policy for each parcel, please contact the Conservation Staff at 781-826-6505.
- The Town of Hanover assumes no liability for injury or loss of personal property.

Conservation Commission land is open for passive recreation. Hiking, jogging, nature study, horseback riding and fishing are encouraged. (Please note postings/warning signs for non-consumption of fish.)
